1. [REDACTED] presented the regular activities R&D revised budget figures for 1961 and estimates for 1962. The revised 1961 figure, [REDACTED] was $145,000 lower than that of the Congressional Budget. It was proposed by OC-E that this amount ($145,000) be utilized for 09 expenditures to equip the new sections of the R&D Lab. In effect, this will accelerate the program for equipping the lab and is directed at preparing the facility for an increase in number and scope of projects to be conducted internally. The Board heartily agreed with this approach and agreed that OC-E should proceed in this direction.

2. SP R&D budget was given a cursory review. Considerable question was evident as to the validity of programming for ELINT collection items, particularly Agent since the future CIA requirements and internal assignment of responsibility in this field is in doubt. As a matter of conjecture, the Board agreed that the DD/P
